INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

INCIDENT:	Use of Force, Fractured Right Orbital
IAB FILE NUMBERS:	FO 2411863
URN#:	916-13152-2608-339
DATE/TIME:	September 11, 2016, 2313 Hours
LOCATION:	30th Street East/Avenue R, Palmdale

SYNOPSIS

On September 12, 2016, an Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) team, comprised of Lieutenant Slade Carrizosa and Sergeant Jonathan Hoyt, responded to Palmdale Sheriff's Station regarding a use of force incident, resulting in a fractured orbital. Sergeant Jonathan Hoyt was assigned the force review.

On September 11, 2016, at approximately 2313 hours, Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] were driving their marked black and white patrol vehicle west on Avenue R, where they came to stop for a red light at 30th Street East. While stopped at the red light, they saw a male white (Suspect Christopher Street) run south across Avenue R, from the "7-Eleven" store's parking lot. Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] noticed "7-Eleven" store employees waving their arms and pointing at Suspect Street. Believing a robbery or violent assault might have occurred, they drove toward Suspect Street to detain him.

As Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] approached Suspect Street, they illuminated him with the headlights of the patrol vehicle and the spotlights. Deputy [redacted] ordered Suspect Street to stop, by yelling at him through the open driver's door window of the patrol vehicle. Suspect Street ignored the order, and ran west toward a high block wall. He then changed his direction of travel and ran in the opposite direction, going toward 30th Street East. Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] initiated a two person foot pursuit. Deputy [redacted] could not transmit emergent radio traffic with his handheld radio, so Deputy [redacted] initiated a foot pursuit broadcast and requested assistance [Exhibit A, CD #1, 10-33].

During the foot pursuit, Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] ordered Suspect Street to "Stop", and "Show your hands." Suspect Street failed to comply with their orders. He threw a beer can as he ran east on Avenue R along the south sidewalk. When Suspect Street reached 30th Street East, he ran south along the west sidewalk of 30th Street East, then east across 30th Street East to the east sidewalk. After he crossed 30th Street East, Suspect Street ran north on 30th Street East toward Avenue R. Consequently, Suspect Street ran directly into the path of Deputy [redacted]. Deputy [redacted] reached out and grabbed the collar of Suspect Street's flannel jacket. Suspect Street slowed his momentum, lost his balance, and fell forward landing his chest and face onto the cement sidewalk. Deputy [redacted] maintained his grasp and fell forward with Suspect Street. Deputy [redacted] landed directly on top of the back of Suspect Street. Deputy [redacted] stayed in this position to have better control of Suspect Street's body.

Deputy [redacted] saw Suspect Street's right arm extended away from his body. Deputy [redacted] placed both knees on the upper portion of Suspect Street's right arm and gained control of his right wrist. Deputy [redacted] placed one handcuff onto the right wrist of Suspect Street. Within seconds, Deputy Davis arrived on scene. Deputy Davis saw Suspect Street lying on his chest and stomach with Deputy [redacted] on the back of Suspect Street. He also saw Deputy [redacted] holding the right wrist of Suspect Street, which had a handcuff on it. Suspect Street was not struggling with either deputy. Deputy Davis placed Suspect Street's left arm behind his back, and completed the handcuffing. Suspect Street did not resist Deputy Davis' efforts to secure the handcuffs on his left wrist.

The uses of force were reported to Sergeant Marcus Phillips at the scene. All written reports documenting this incident were submitted as [Exhibit B].

WITNESS STATEMENTS

The following narratives are intended only as a synopsis of the interviews. Additional information and precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interviews and verbatim transcriptions. Internal Affairs Bureau investigators reviewed all reports authored by involved deputies and determined they were consistent with their Internal Affairs Bureau Administrative Force Review interviews.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE DEPUTY [redacted]

On August 7, 2017, Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Jonathan Hoyt and [redacted]. The interview was conducted at the Internal Affairs Bureau's office. Representing Deputy [redacted] during the interview was Attorney Amanda Waters from the law firm of Rains, Lucia, Stern. Following is a summary of the interview:

On September 11, 2016, Deputy [redacted] was assigned to Palmdale Sheriff's Station. He worked as unit [redacted], on the [redacted] shift. His partner for the shift was Deputy [redacted]. As his shift was coming to an end, Deputy [redacted] drove the marked black and white patrol vehicle toward Palmdale Sheriff's Station. Deputy [redacted] drove west on Avenue R at 30th Street East, and stopped for a red light. Deputy [redacted] saw Suspect Street run south across Avenue R, from the "7-Eleven" store located on the northwest corner of the intersection. Shortly thereafter, Deputy [redacted] saw employees from the "7-Eleven" store frantically wave their arms over their heads to gain their [the deputies] attention. The employees also pointed toward Suspect Street. Deputy [redacted] believed either an assault or robbery might have been committed by Suspect Street.

Deputy [redacted] drove toward Suspect Street. Deputy [redacted] saw Suspect Street run toward the apartment complex. Not wanting to lose his visual on Suspect Street, Deputy [redacted] sped up and drove toward Suspect Street. At this point, Suspect Street slowed to a walk and continued to walk west along the south sidewalk of Avenue R. Deputy [redacted] illuminated Suspect Street utilizing the headlights of his patrol vehicle, and the driver's side spotlight. As he drove up to Suspect Street, Deputy [redacted] yelled out loud, "Hey! Stop!" Suspect Street turned, looked over his shoulder in the direction of the patrol vehicle, and he started to run again.

Suspect Street ran west on Avenue R toward a high block wall. Upon reaching the high block wall, Suspect Street changed direction and ran east along the south sidewalk of Avenue R. Deputy [redacted] put the patrol vehicle in the Park position, exited the patrol vehicle, and chased Suspect Street on foot. Initially, Deputy [redacted] led the foot pursuit with Deputy [redacted] running closely behind him. When Suspect Street changed direction to go in the opposite way, Deputy [redacted] took the lead instead.

As Deputy [redacted] chased Suspect Street, he noticed Deputy [redacted] was running a few feet in front of him, and Suspect Street was running approximately 15 feet in front of both of them. Deputy [redacted] heard Deputy [redacted] make several attempts to broadcast emergent traffic over his portable radio regarding their foot pursuit without success. Deputy [redacted] heard Deputy [redacted] tell him to put out the emergent radio traffic. Deputy [redacted] immediately broadcasted emergent traffic over his portable radio, which Sheriff's Communication Center (SCC) dispatcher acknowledged. Deputy [redacted] provided their location, direction of travel, and reason for the foot pursuit.

During the foot pursuit, Suspect Street ran east along a grass area between the [redacted] and the south sidewalk of Avenue R. While he ran, Suspect Street reached toward his waistband area as if to reach for a weapon. Deputy [redacted] yelled commands at Suspect Street to "Stop. Stop running!" which Suspect Street ignored. Suspect Street removed a beer can from his waistband and tossed it. After he tossed the beer can, Suspect Street stopped reaching into his waistband area and continued to run.

Suspect Street crossed 30th Street East and ran north on along the east sidewalk. Suspect Street slowed down and appeared to be tired. Deputy [redacted] closed the distance and grabbed the back collar of Suspect Street's flannel jacket. Suspect Street lost his balance, as did Deputy [redacted]. They fell forward with Deputy [redacted] holding onto his flannel jacket. Suspect Street landed chest first on the cement sidewalk and a metal diamond plate utility cover, with Deputy [redacted] landing on top of Suspect Street's back.

Once on the ground, Deputy [redacted] remained on the back of Suspect Street. Within a second, Deputy [redacted] arrived, took hold of Suspect Street's right arm, and placed one handcuff onto the right wrist of Suspect Street. Deputy [redacted] noticed Suspect Street breathing heavily. He said, "Just relax. Just stop." Suspect Street became cooperative. He did not move and remained in the same position.

Deputy Davis arrived on scene and assisted with handcuffing Suspect Street. Deputy Davis secured the handcuff on Suspect Street's left wrist. Suspect Street was placed onto his side, and assisted into a seated position. Deputy [redacted] saw Suspect Street sustained facial injuries and requested Los Angeles County Fire Department personnel to respond. Once other deputy personnel arrived, Deputy [redacted] removed himself from the scene and had no further contact with Suspect Street.

Deputy Davis found a pill bottle which contained methamphetamine a few feet in front of Suspect Street's head. Deputy [redacted] took control of the pill bottle and booked it into evidence at Palmdale Sheriff's Station.

Suspect Street was treated at the scene by the paramedics and transported to Palmdale Regional Hospital by ambulance.

Deputy [redacted] authored a report documenting his actions and his use of force to Sergeant Phillips. After reviewing his report, he confirmed to investigators the contents were an accurate account of the incident. Deputy [redacted] was shown the security video footage from the "7-Eleven" store's outside camera [Exhibit A, CD #2, Foot Pursuit]. After reviewing the video, he maintained his written and oral reporting were an accurate depiction of events.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE DEPUTY [redacted]

On August 7, 2017, Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Jonathan Hoyt and [redacted]. The interview was conducted at the Internal Affairs Bureau office. Representing Deputy [redacted] during the interview was Attorney Amanda Waters from the law firm of Rains, Lucia, Stern. Following is a summary of the interview:

On September 11, 2016, Deputy [redacted] was assigned to Palmdale Sheriff's Station. He worked as unit [redacted], on the [redacted] shift. Deputy [redacted] was the passenger, and his partner for the shift was Deputy [redacted]. As his shift was coming to an end, Deputy [redacted] drove toward Palmdale Sheriff's Station. As they reached the intersection of 30th Street East at Avenue R, Deputy [redacted] saw Suspect Street run south out of the "7-Eleven" store, located on the northwest corner of the intersection. He was quickly followed by the store's employees. As Suspect Street ran across Avenue R, the store's employees frantically waved their arms over their heads, trying to gain their [the deputies'] attention. The employees also pointed toward Suspect Street. Deputy [redacted] believed either a robbery or an assault had just occurred. He also believed Suspect Street, who was still running, might have committed said crime(s).

Suspect Street slowed down and walked west on Avenue R, along the south sidewalk. As he and Deputy [redacted] approached Suspect Street in their patrol vehicle, Deputy [redacted] illuminated Suspect Street with the spotlight. Deputy [redacted] heard Deputy [redacted] yell to Suspect Street to stop out the driver's door window. Immediately after Deputy [redacted] yelled "Stop," Suspect Street ran west toward a high block wall.

Upon reaching the high block wall, Suspect Street changed direction and ran east on Avenue R. Deputy [redacted] exited the patrol vehicle and engaged in a foot pursuit. Deputy [redacted] attempted to notify the SCC dispatcher of their foot pursuit utilizing his portable radio. He received no acknowledgement from the SCC dispatcher. Deputy [redacted] yelled to Deputy [redacted] to put out the emergent radio traffic. Deputy [redacted] heard Deputy [redacted] transmitted the emergent radio traffic and heard the SCC dispatcher acknowledge the request.

As Deputy [redacted] chased Suspect Street east on Avenue R, he saw Suspect Street reach toward his waistband or pocket area. Deputy [redacted] yelled at Suspect Street, "Stop running. Show me your hands" several times. Suspect Street removed a beer can and tossed it, but he did not stop running.

When Suspect Street reached 30th Street East at Avenue R, he turned and ran south on 30th Street East. Suspect Street ran east across 30th Street East to the east sidewalk. Suspect Street turned and ran north along the east sidewalk of 30th Street east, toward Avenue R. Deputy [redacted] continued to chase Suspect Street with Deputy [redacted].

Upon reaching the southeast corner of 30th Street East at Avenue R, Deputy [redacted] saw Deputy [redacted] grab Suspect Street by the collar of his flannel jacket. He noticed Suspect Street fell forward, landing on his chest. He fell face down on the cement sidewalk with a metal diamond plate utility cover, and Deputy [redacted] landed on the back of Suspect Street. Deputy [redacted] saw the right arm of Suspect Street stretched out to his side. He placed both knees onto the right arm of Suspect Street. Deputy [redacted] grabbed the right arm of Suspect Street, placed one handcuff onto the wrist, and proceeded to put Suspect Street's right arm behind his back. Suspect Street attempted to pull his arm away from Deputy [redacted], but quickly stopped and became cooperative. Within seconds, Deputy Davis arrived and took control of Suspect Street's left arm, placing it behind his back. He saw Deputy Davis search Suspect Street and noted Suspect Street was bleeding from the forehead. Los Angeles County Fire Department personnel arrived on scene and treated Suspect Street for his injuries.

After reviewing his report, he confirmed to investigators the contents were an accurate account of the incident. Deputy [redacted] was shown the security video footage from the "7-Eleven" store's outside camera [Exhibit A, CD #2, Foot Pursuit]. Being in close proximity to the foot pursuit, Deputy Davis responded Code 3 to the location.

Upon his arrival, Deputy Davis found a patrol vehicle stopped on the south side of Avenue R, west of 30th Street East. He did not immediately find any deputies at the vehicle. He looked east, and saw lights flashing from one of the deputies.

Prior to pressing the send button to call 911, he looked to his left and saw a patrol vehicle at the intersection. Witness [redacted] did not call 911, and instead flagged down the patrol vehicle. Witness [redacted] waived his hands above his head to gain the attention of the deputies and pointed at Suspect Street as the patrol vehicle approached.

Witness [redacted], the Emergency Room Physician, treated Suspect Street for facial injuries. Witness [redacted] believed the injuries were consistent with an individual who hit his face on a cement surface. Witness [redacted] believed the contusions and the lacerations were consistent with Suspect Street landing on his face and scraping his forehead when he turned his head from side to side on the cement sidewalk.

Witness [redacted] believed the injuries sustained by Suspect Street were inconsistent with being struck by a flashlight. If Suspect Street had been hit by a flashlight, he believed the injury would show an imprint pattern of the flashlight.

During the evaluation and treatment, Suspect Street never told Witness [redacted] he was struck with a flashlight by one of the deputies.

SUSPECT CHRISTOPHER STREET

On September 12, 2016, Suspect Street was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeant Jonathan Hoyt and Lieutenant Slade Carrizosa. The interview was conducted at Palmdale Sheriff's Station. Following is a summary of the interview:

On September 11, 2016, Suspect Street stole a beer from a "7-Eleven" store. The "7-Eleven" store employees flagged down a patrol vehicle, which happened to be driving by. The deputies put their lights on him, pulled alongside, and told him to stop. Suspect Street started running east along Avenue R toward 30th Street East as the deputies chased him. While being chased, Suspect Street heard the deputies yell, "You want to die tonight fucker?"

Suspect Street ran across 30th Street East, and it was catty-corner to the "7-Eleven" store when he could not run any further. Suspect Street stopped, turned around with both hands above his head, and said, "I'm sorry" several times. A deputy placed Suspect Street into a "bear hug" and placed him on the ground. The deputy placed a knee on the back of Suspect Street and remained on top of him for approximately 10 seconds. Suspect Street claimed the deputy was looking around to see if anyone was watching at this moment. Suspect Street's left arm was placed behind his back, and his right arm was extended out. Suddenly, the deputy slammed Suspect Street's head three times against the cement sidewalk. After having his head slammed on the cement sidewalk, the deputy hit him on the right side of his face with what he believed to be a flashlight. Suspect Street described being hit with a metal object, and not with a fist.

As Suspect Street was on the ground with a deputy on top of him, Suspect Street said, "I'm sorry" several times. The deputy reportedly said, "I'll bet you're sorry" and "Bet you're sorry now motherfucker." Suspect Street was handcuffed and numerous other deputies arrived.

Suspect Street admitted he used methamphetamine around noon the day of the incident. He denied being under the influence of methamphetamine or feeling the effects of methamphetamine during the time of his arrest. Suspect Street was transported to Palmdale Regional Medical Center, where he was treated for his injuries by Witness [redacted].
